

My Father's Birthday

My father's birthday is next Saturday. He will be forty-four years old. He is a good dad. I love him.

In the morning, I will buy Dad a T-shirt and a tie. My siblings will draw him a birthday card. After that, we will have ice-cream at an ice-cream shop. Then we will eat pancakes and have milk shakes at McDonald's.

In the afternoon, we will go to Sai Kung Country Park. We will fly kites and play games there. We will have a picnic there as well. Then we will go to Starbucks to buy coffee and chocolate chip lattes for myself and my siblings.

In the evening, we will go to Disneyland and stay overnight at a hotel there. We will go on the rides and it will be very exciting. At night, we will look at the colourful fireworks and order Star Wars drinks at Star Wars Land. Then we will go back to our hotel and sleep. It will be a fantastic day!
