

Island Surprise

Derek and his brother David wanted to look for treasure on an island.

They set off for the island by boat on a sunny day. They were so happy because they realised the island was not far away.

Suddenly, a strong storm came. They lost their map overboard and their boat started to sink. So with no other choice, they had to brave the storm and swim to the island.

Finally, they arrived at the island. The natives on the island warmly welcomed their arrival. Derek and David were surprised to find out that there wasn't any treasure on this island. It was only an ordinary island.

A week later, Derek and his brother David left the island with a new boat and many coconuts from the natives. The two boys helped the natives sell the coconuts at the market. Maybe the coconuts were the real treasure.
